

WELCOME TO OUR 5 DAY NEWBERRY MI, ITINERARY BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE NEWBERRY AREA TOURISM ASSOCIATION.

Day 1 – Tahquamenon Falls State Park & Whitefish Point

Upper Tahquamenon Falls State Park

Drive Time from Newberry, MI: 27 minutes

Average visit time: 2 hour to all day, depending on your adventure

This beautiful waterfall is located in the Tahquamenon Falls State Park which encompasses a total of 50,000 acres of pure virgin forests, waterfalls and a majestic river. The Upper Tahquamenon Falls is the second largest waterfall east of the Mississippi. You will need a Recreational Passport to visit.

The Upper Tahquamenon Falls is over 200 feet wide and 48 feet tall. When we receive high precipitation, over 50,000 gallons of water spill over the waterfall per second.

You will need a park pass to visit Michigan's State Parks. Guests will find many great trails with beautiful viewing points. The park has restrooms and picnic areas. There are also informational kiosks throughout the park.

Many hikers come to Tahquamenon to tackle the infamous "trail between da falls." This 5-mile linear trail is one of the more difficult trails in the park, due to exposed roots and hilly terrain, but is definitely the most scenic. The River Trail parallels the Tahquamenon River the majority of the way, offering multiple views for photographers and outdoor-lovers alike. Make sure to have plenty of water, snacks and bug spray along for the hike.

A fee-operated shuttle service operates Memorial Day– Labor Day; check the schedule before you head out as times vary by season. Website: www.michigan.org/property/tahquamenon-falls-state-park

Average visit time: 45 minutes to all day, depending on your adventure

The entrance to the Lower Falls is 4 miles east of the Upper Falls along M-123. These falls are easily viewed and photographed from the paved walkway. A ¼-mile boardwalk will take you through thick coniferous forest, ending up at the viewing platforms where you can feel mist from the waterfall. Keep following the boardwalk upstream and you will find easy access to wade in the river and get your feet wet.

Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum & Whitefish Point Light Station

Drive Time from Tahquamenon Falls State Park: 25 minutes

Average visit time: 1 - 2 hours

The Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum has become one of Michigan's most popular destinations in the cultural tourism industry, attracting over 75,000 visitors each season. The museum is open May 1 - October 31, from 10 am to 6 pm. Museum patrons learn about the perils of maritime transport on the Great Lakes at the Whitefish Point Light Station, a Historic Site on the National Register of Historic Places. See the Whitefish Point Light Tower, in continuous operation for 155 years, the oldest operating lighthouse on Lake Superior. It is a critical turning point for all vessel traffic entering and leaving this largest of all the Great Lakes. The Light Station was established by Congress in 1849; since then, a life-saving beacon has illuminated these dangerous waters for mariners continuously. Location: Whitefish Point 18335 N. Important Resources:

Newberry, the Official Moose Capital of Michigan

Q: "Where can I see a moose around Newberry, MI?"

A: Though sightings are rare, there are more moose sightings in Luce County than any other county in the State of Michigan.

Newberry, MI is the Official Moose Capital of Michigan. Most sightings do occur in the Tahquamenon State Park and north of Newberry. The area and terrain is a perfect setting for the lifestyle of the moose. Moose are an elusive species. They prefer areas associated with water, ponds and swamps. The Tahquamenon Falls State Park has information with interpretive materials including a kiosk and a video on Michigan moose recovery efforts. Interpretive staff (when available) can provide the latest information on the local herd and recent sightings.

ATV ORV Enthusiasts

A network of trails through the Lake Superior State Forest wilderness provides you with many hours of unsurpassed riding. Most of the forests north of 4 mile corner (4 miles from Newberry) is open to offroading. State Forest roads are open to off road traffic unless posted closed. Almost all of the many seasonal roads throughout Luce County are open to enthusiasts unless gated. For additional Upper Michigan ATV / ORV information, regulation, detailed maps, please visit the Newberry Department of Natural Resources Operation Center located just north of Newberry, at the intersection at M28 and M123. You can also call their office at: (906) 293-5131.

Newberry Snowmobiling

TASA is responsible for grooming and maintaining 128 miles of snowmobile trails that connect to other area trail systems that reach out throughout the entire Upper Peninsula of Michigan. To keep these snowmobile trails in top shape, it takes a lot of man power, and hours of hard labor & commitment. For trail reports and more information, please visit their website. The TASA trail system was voted #5 for the one of the best snowmobiling destinations in "America's Top 10". Our trail system ranked # 1 in Lake Superior magazine.
